

TEC03001 - Business Analysis Using Financial Statement

Introduction

This objective of the course is to equip the participants with the understanding and knowledge of how to use financial information to value and analyze firms. The participants will be trained with economics, accounting and finance skills to build the insight and ability to evaluate the performance of a company from the financial angle point of views.

Design for

This program is designed for participants who are interested or responsible for the financial performance of a company.

Contents

1. Introduction: Business Valuation and Market Efficiency
2. The Basics of Company Valuation
3. Cash Flow Analysis
4. Using Accounting Earning for Valuation – Why earnings and not cash flow?
5. Comparative Analysis: what do Financial Analysts Do?
6. How to read a financial statement?
7. Risk Assessment: Do Financial Statements capture risk?

Language Medium

Cantonese (supplemented with English)
English course manual

Duration

1 day x 4

Contact our Sales Consultant for assistance - free of charge

Tel: 8200 6826
